tom coleman

TOM COLEMAN, a groundbreaking innovator in the ceramic art world, is a full time potter. He works from his home in Henderson, Nevada and does many workshops and shows each year. The desert has greatly influenced his work.

This workshop begins with a lecture and power point presentation of Tom's 45 years in the ceramic arts. During the next two days, he will demonstrate throwing, altering, and discuss formulating clay bodies, slips and glaze techniques, along with discussions on marketing, photographing and his philosophy as a clay artist.
